JSHeroes

OPEN-SOURCE COMMUNITY EVENT BY CLUJ JAVASCRIPTERS

18-20 APR 2018

CLUJ-NAPOCA, ROMANIA | 2ND EDITION

JSHeroes is an International JavaScript Conference, the second of a series of Open-Source Community Events dedicated solely to this technology. By design, the event is well balanced and targets different levels of expertise, including people with extensive knowledge and experience. The event is exclusively technical and the speakers are going to tackle diverse topics and flavors from the JavaScript ecosystem.

OUR MISSION

We strongly believe that JavaScript is the future. Therefore, our mission is to improve the skills in our local enviroment and to keep our community in sync with the latest advancements in the JavaScript ecosystem.

DESIGNED BY THE COMMUNITY

The community model is the best environment for learning, so part of our mission is to inspire and help other communities. We'll continue to publish for the 2nd edition too all data about this conference, in full transparency. This way, whenever the next javascripters want to take over this event, they can build on our knowledge and the already created brand.

WE HAVE DESIGNED A SINGLE SPONSORING PACKAGE OF €2000
THAT INCLUDES

Two mentions by posting on the event social media pages
- one individual spotlight after we shake hands
- one post including all sonsors, right before the event

Your organization's logo

TESTIMONIALS

To me, JSHeroes 2017 was a lot about JavaScript, but even more about the actual heroes which make this great community - the attendees with their appetite for knowledge, and the organizers who thought of every little detail to make this conference a great party of knowledge sharing playground.

– Liran Tal

I had the most incredible experience in Cluj-Napoca. Made really , amazing, friendships valuable business connections and learned a lot from the great speakers selection. I've been to many cities and conferences, but JSHeroes decidedly ranks among my favorites.

– Guillermo Rauch

JS Heroes was the most surprising conference I attended this year. The focus on the community made this event a place for developers to get know each other and share knowledge and passion. I made some good friends

– Nir Kaufman
